UNOPPOSED MOTION TO COMPEL AND DISCLOSE DATA

The United States of America, by and through undersigned counsel, respectfully files this motion to move this Court to order and allow disclosure of the data underlying the sealed forensic evaluation dated June 6, 2019, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241. The forensic evaluator cannot disclose the data without a court order. The State of Alaska charged Peter Vance Wilson in 2KB-18-00689CR with homicide offenses arising out of the events relating to the charges in the current Federal indictment before this Court. The data underlying the forensic evaluation is relevant information for the state prosecutor, state defense attorney, and any additional competency experts. This data is necessary for the parties and any additional experts to review before proceeding in this matter.

The United States further moves this Court to compel this data and allow disclosure pursuant to the protective order applicable to the forensic evaluation.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED July 15, 2019, in Anchorage, AK.
